"I dare say—as they warm people in Spain! 'I smeered He will be Bishop Burnur to you!" shricked the lailiff almost beside himself with rage at helng so bearded by a lad. 'Take care!' I retorted 'De not you speak evil of dignitaries, or you will be getting into trouble!" He fairly writhed under this rejainder. "Landlord, 'he splittered, "I shall hold you responsible! If this person leaves your bouse and is not fortheoming when wanted, you will suffer for lei!"

The landlord sortehed his head, bring a good natured follow, but a balliff is a balliff, especially at $1 Albana And I was muddy and travel stained, and quick of my tangue for one so young, which the middle agod never like, though the old bear it better He besteated. "In not be a fool, Master Host!" I said. "I have samething her?"— and I touched my pecket, which dappened to be near my sword hit— that will make you rue it if you interfere with me!"

"He! he!" cried the halliff in haste and triumph. 'So that is his tone! We have a tavera brawler here, have wer? A young swashbucker! His tongue will not run so fast when he finds his feet in the spools. Master landlord, call the witch! Oall, the watch, all once, I command you!"
